- failure to transmit / view the application via personal PEC for the Italian candidates and via email for foreign ones;
- transmission of the application beyond the deadline, set by this public notice;
- failure to pay the contribution.

Art. 6
Selection Committees

1. The committees, in charge of the selection procedures, are made up of three permanent members, Professors, belonging to the competition sector and not working for the University of Palermo.

The Department asking for the publication of this call for selection will appoint, by an absolute majority of its Board, four Professors not belonging to the University of Palermo. Among these four professors, two members of the Commission will be drawn by Officers appointed by the Rector.

The Department, asking for the publication of this call for selection, will appoint the third member, belonging to the University as well. In this circumstance, this third member can be selected within the macro-sector.

The proposed members must have an international high scientific profile. They are selected among the tenured professors, belonging to the list of commissioners in charge for the national scientific qualification in the relevant Assessment Sector.

The possession of requirements and qualifications for the professors not belonging to the Ministerial lists of the Commissioners for the national scientific qualification will be self-certified. Those requirements and qualifications are equivalent to ones required for being included in the abovementioned lists and to those detailed in the resolution n. 132 dated 13.09.2016 issued by the ANVUR Board of Directors.

A scholar, engaged permanently abroad in Universities research and teaching activities for at least three years, covering an academic position equivalent to that of full professor in foreign universities or research institutions, with high scientific qualification recognized internationally, can be proposed as member of the selection committee.

Should a first-level professors, belonging to the University of Palermo not be selected as member of the Commission for the selection procedure, a second-level professor can be proposed, if belonging to the University of Palermo and holding the required qualifications.

2. For the selection procedures as per the art. 24 paragraph 3 letter a) of the Law n. 240/2010, a second-level professor can be proposed as member of the selection committee, if holding the required qualifications for being included in the list of the commissioners in charge for the national scientific qualification in the relevant Assessment Sector, as per the procedure described in paragraph 1.

3. The Commission is appointed with a Decree issued by the Rector who may verify the above-mentioned requirements preliminarily, with the support of external experts.

When a member turns down the appointment or in the event of unexpected unavailability before the appointment of the commission, the procedure by drawing lots is repeated for the commissioner who renounced, as soon as the concerned department has communicated another member.

The designation decree is published on the Official University Register.

4. The Commission appoints a President and a Secretary among its members and makes its decisions by an absolute majority.

5. Within thirty days from the publication of the decree appointing the commission in the University Official Register, the candidates may submit to the Rector of the University petitions/complaints against the members of the selection committee, when there are the circumstances foreseen by the art. 51 and 52 of the Italian Civil Code of Civil Procedure.

If all the candidates declare that there are no grounds for recusal, this deadline ceases to be and the selection commission can set-up.

If the cause for the objection has arisen, as long as it is prior to the date on which the commission is established, the term starts from its onset. The petitioner's procedure is not allowed anymore when the mentioned deadline has passed and, in any case, after the setting-up of the selection commission.

Art. 7

Selection committee's fulfilments

The appointed committee is authorized to hold the first meeting and the whole selection's procedure on expiry of the deadline mentioned in the previous article, paragraph 5.

The first meeting and the whole selection procedure will take place remotely (Microsoft Teams) in order to ensure a fast conclusion of the selection process.

During the first meeting, the Committee will:

- appoint the President and the Secretary for the minutes;
- enter in the minutes a declaration released by each member and stating the nonexistence of the causes of abstention pursuant to arts. 51 and 52 of the Italian Code of civil procedure;
- establish the criteria for the preliminary evaluation of the candidates (Ministerial Decree 25/05/2011 n. 243);
- establish the criteria to be used for the acknowledgment of a score to the qualifications and to each publication sent by the candidates admitted to the discussion;

At the end of the first meeting, the minutes containing the assessment criteria and schemes is delivered to the person in charge of the procedure in order to ensure the required publicity on the University's Official Register, at least for seven days, before the next and coming selection Committee section.

Pursuant to paragraph 2 letter c) of the art. 24 - Law n. 240/2010, the selection procedure will foresee a first preliminary evaluation of the candidates, with an explained and analytical evaluation decision referred to qualifications, curriculum and scientific productions, including the PhD thesis, according to criteria and parameters recognized also in the international context and identified with the Ministerial Decree n. 243/2011 as per the following art. 8 of this announcement. Admitted candidates will find information on the next coming selection steps visiting the website: <http://bit.ly/ricercatoriTD> and with an official communication published on the University Official Registry.

After the preliminary assessment, the most deserving candidates are admitted to the public discussion of qualifications and scientific production. A number between 10% and 20% of candidates and however not less than six units will be admitted.

If the number of candidates is equal to or less than six, all of them will be admitted to the public discussion and the above-mentioned preliminary evaluation will not be carried out.

The selection procedure acts consist of the minutes of the meetings and the final report about the works carried out by the Commission. The individual and collective decisions expressed for each candidate during the preliminary assessment, as well as the scores assigned to the qualifications and to each publication of the candidates admitted to the public discussion, are integral and necessary part of the minutes.

At the end of the work, the Commission, with a final resolution approved by the majority of the members, appoints the winner.

The Commission must conclude all the selection phases within forty (40) days from the deadline mentioned in the art. 6, paragraph 5. If the works are not completed within the aforesaid term, with a motivated decision, the Rector can launch the procedure to replace the members of the committee responsible for the delay, establishing at the same time a new deadline for the conclusion of the procedures.

Art. 8 Qualifications and curriculum assessment

The preliminary evaluation of the candidates, with motivated analytical decision based on the qualifications, on the curriculum and on the scientific production, including the PhD thesis, is carried out before the public discussion and the oral exam, according to the criteria as per art. 2 of the Ministerial Decree 25.05.2011 n. 243.

The selection committees carry out an motivated evaluation phase, followed by a comparative evaluation, making reference to the specific competition sector and to the possible profile defined exclusively through indication of one or more scientific disciplinary sectors, of the curriculum and of the following titles, duly documented, of the candidates:

- a) Doctoral degree or equivalent qualification, or, for the concerned sectors, the medical specialization diploma or equivalent, obtained in Italy or abroad;
- b) any teaching activity carried out at Universities in Italy or abroad;
- c) recognized training or research activities in qualified Italian or foreign institutions;
- d) recognised activities in the clinical field relating to the competition sectors where these specific skills are required;
- e) implementation of project activities relating to the competition sectors where envisaged;
- f) organization, direction and coordination of national and international research groups, or participation in;
- g) ownership of patents relating to the competition sectors where envisaged;
- h) speaker at National and International congresses and conferences;
- i) National and International prizes and awards for research activities;
- j) European specialization diploma recognized by international boards, in relation to those competition sectors where envisaged.

The evaluation of each qualification as mentioned in the previous paragraph is carried out taking in consideration the value compared to the quality and quantity of the research activities carried out by each candidate.

Art. 9 Assessment of scientific production

The selection committees, in carrying out the preliminary comparative evaluation of the candidates, take into consideration only publications or texts accepted for publication according to the regulations in force as well as essays included in collective works and articles published in magazines in paper or digital format with the exclusion of internal notes or departmental reports.

The PhD research or equivalent qualifications are taken into consideration, even if the conditions referred to in this paragraph do not subsist.

The selection committees carry out comparative evaluation of the publications as referred to in paragraph, on the basis of the following criteria:

- a) originality, innovation, methodological rigor and relevance of each scientific publication;
- b) congruence of each publication to the competition sector where the procedure is announced and with the possible profile, defined exclusively by indicating one or more scientific-disciplinary sectors, or with related interdisciplinary topics;
- c) scientific relevance of the editorial location of each publication and its dissemination within the scientific community;
- d) analytical determination, also based on criteria recognised by the international scientific community of reference, of the individual contribution provided by the candidate in the event of his / her participation in collaborative works.

The selection committees must also evaluate the overall amount of the candidate's scientific production, its strength/quantity and temporal continuity, apart from the period of non-voluntary removal from the research's activity, upon due justification, with particular reference to parental leave/maternity leave.

With regard to the competition's sectors, as internationally accepted, the committees, in evaluating the publications, also apply the following parameters/indicators, within the application deadline terms:

- a) overall number of academic quotations;
- b) average number of academic quotations per publication;
- c) overall "impact factor";
- d) average "impact factor" per publication;
- e) combinations of the previous parameters to enhance the impact of the candidate's scientific production (Hirsch indicator or similar).

Art. 10

Oral exam and public discussion of qualifications and scientific production

After the aforementioned preliminary assessment, and the consequent admission of the most deserving candidates, or if the number of candidates is equal to or less than six, the selection committee carries out the public discussion of qualifications and scientific production and the contextual oral exam. The exam is also aimed at establishing the foreign language's knowledge. Everyone can access the public interview/discussion, open to general audience.

Day, venue, and time of the public discussion will be communicated to the interested parties by means of a notice published in the Official University Register and on the University page at <http://bit.ly/ricercatoriTD>.

The publication of the aforementioned notices in the Official University Register will have the value of notification for all participants in the selection. No other further communication will be released.

The Administration assumes no responsibility for the failure to read the notices and each candidate will be directly responsible to keep herself/himself informed by consulting the Official University Register and the University page at <http://bit.ly/ricercatoriTD> to find the necessary information on the selection procedures.

After the discussion, the Commission will score the qualifications and each publication sent by the candidates admitted to the discussion, according to the criteria indicated in the art. 8 and 9 and established in the minutes no. 1.

The Commission is required to reserve not less than 70% of the maximum score for the publications in scoring the qualifications and each publication.

The oral exam and the contextual discussion of qualifications and publications will take place via video conference, using the TEAMS platform. Candidates must show the same identification document attached to the application form to the Commission

Candidates must show only one of the following valid identification documents, for joining the evaluation sections:

- ID card;
- firearms license;
- driving license;
- boat license;
- passport;
- identification cards issued by a State Administration, provided that those documents have a photograph and a stamp and/or other equivalent signature.

Art. 11

Documents conformity and regularity checks

Within 30 days from the delivery of the selection procedure's documentation, the Rector, with his own decree validates the formal regularity of the documents and declares the name of the winner.

The conditions, facts and personal qualities self-certified by the winning candidate are subject to checks by the University to verify the truthfulness, also on a random basis.

The Rector's documentation approval decree is communicated to all interested parties and sent to the Department in charge of that vacancy.

The Rectors decree will be published on the Official Register of the University and on the University website as per the following art. 18.

Should the Rector notice any irregularity, the documentation might be resent to the Commission, upon due justification, for it to be regularised within the deadline established by the Rector themselves.

The Administration reserves the right not to proceed with the recruitment referred to in this public selection if, in consideration of the duration of the candidates evaluation procedure, it is not possible to ensure taking up service within the deadline of 8th July 2022.

Art. 12

Winner's appointment and contract signature

The candidate, declared winner of the selection procedure, will receive a notification of the decree concerning the approval of the proceedings.

Following the aforementioned approval, and pursuant to paragraph 2 letter d) of art. 24 of Law 240/2010, the Department in charge of the required vacancy will define the proposal to employ the candidate, with a document voted by an absolute majority of first and second level professors.

This proposal must be submitted to the approval of the Board of Directors.

The winner, after the further approval voted by the Board of Directors, will sign a three - years contract, pursuant to paragraph 3 letter b) of art. 24 of Law 240/2010, on a full-time basis.

This contract is to be considered as special title in general competitions for accessing to the public administrations offices (paragraph 9 of art. 24 of Law 240/2010).

This contract does not allow accessing to the University roles or personnel profiles automatically.

The winner, both if an Italian citizen and if a European Member State citizen, has to declare, otherwise they'll lose the right to be appointed, pursuant to arts. 46 and 47 of the D.P.R. n. 445/2000:

- a) date and place of birth;
- b) citizenship;
- c) the enjoyment of civil and political rights in Italy and in the State of origin;
- d) the position for the fulfilment of military obligations;
- e) the inexistence of criminal convictions that prevent the establishment of a public employment relationship;
- f) the fiscal code number (only for the Italian citizens);
- g) the family unit composition;
- h) the absence of marriage, kinship or affinity relationships, up to and including the fourth degree, with a professor belonging to the proposing department, or with the Rector, the General Director or with a member of the University's Board of Directors;
- i) any other employments for State, provinces, municipalities or other public or private entities and, if so, a declaration stating that the winner has requested for an unpaid placement (without salary) for the whole period of this contract.

The statement related to the point c) must specify the possess of this requirement on the date of the deadline of this call for selection.

The non-EU nationals, winners of the selections procedure, must submit the following documents within thirty days; otherwise they'll lose the right to be appointed:

- 1) birth certificate;
- 2) certificate, equivalent to the general certificate of the criminal record, issued by the competent authority of the State where they stay as citizen. The foreign candidates, if residing in Italy, in addition to the aforementioned certificate, must also submit a certificate showing the lack of criminal convictions and pending charges against them in Italy;
- 3) certificate showing the citizenship;
- 4) certificate showing the enjoyment of political rights.

The certificate related to the point n. 4) must show the possession of the requirement on the deadline of this call for selections.

The certificates, issued by the competent authorities of the State whom the winner is a citizen of, must comply with the provisions in force in the State itself and must also be confirmed and certified by the competent Italian consular authorities.

All the documents, drawn up in a foreign language, must be translated in Italian or submitted with an Italian translation, certified as in compliance with the foreign text, drafted either by the competent diplomatic consular Italian Authority/Representative or by an official translator.

Non-EU nationals residing in Italy, according to the provisions of the registry regulation of the resident population approved by D.P.R. 30.05.1989, n. 223, can submit declarations under the scheme of the D.P.R. 28.12.2000 n. 445, art. 46 and 47, only for proving personal status, facts and qualities that can be certified or verified by an Italian public or private Institution/Entity/Administration and excluding all the special provisions foreseen in the laws and the regulations concerning the immigrations laws and the condition of foreigners.

Art. 13 Economic conditions

The economic conditions reserved to a fixed-term researcher, employed under the scheme of this public notice, are equal to those of a confirmed researcher, with a full time commitment.

Art. 14 Incompatibility

The provisions of art. 6 paragraphs 9, 10, 11 and 12 of Law no. 240/2010, regulating the incompatibilities related to the legal position of researcher and the incompatibilities connected with full-time commitment are referred to the holders of a fixed-term contract as agreed under this call for applications. The provisions of art. 53 of the D.Lgs. n. 165/2001 as well as the University regulations for authorizations to perform paid external tasks are also in force for all the issues related to the authorization scheme.

Art. 15 Termination of the contract

The contract shall be ended at the expiration date as foreseen in the contract or by right, by giving notice to the other party.

Each of the contractors may terminate the contract, before the deadline, when a circumstance does not allow the prosecution of the contract, pursuant to art. 2119 of the civil code.

Art. 16 Personal Data Processing

The personal data provided by the candidates with the application will be collected and processed by the University of Palermo in compliance with the EU Regulation n. 679/2016, for the relevant purposes connected to the procedure. The data communication is mandatory, otherwise excluded.
