

International Workshop
Risk Management, Financial Regulation, and Governance in Banking: Perspectives and Challenges of the European Banking Union - Palermo, 20th May 2016

Palermo experience: getting around

The Workshop will be hosted at Palazzo Alliata di Villafranca, Piazza Bologni n. 20, Palermo. It is located along Corso Vittorio Emanuele. In the centre of the piazza there is a statue of Charles V, the Spanish monarch.

Let's have a look on the map !!!

The best way to see Palermo is on foot. This allows you to wander round the web of back streets and discover hidden palaces and churches that you may otherwise miss. The old town centre of Palermo, where most sites of interest are situated, is quite easily walkable.

Around Piazza Bologni and Corso Vittorio Emanuele you will find most places of interest, including:

Palazzo Belmonte Riso (Museum of Contemporary Art)
